

Name _____

A plural pronoun takes the place of more than one person, place, or thing.

they we them us you

The umpire is looking for the coaches.

The umpire and I are ready to start.

The umpire is looking for them.

We are ready to start.

Rewrite each sentence with the correct plural pronoun for the underlined nouns.

1. The players have a problem today.

2. The field is wet, and the teams don't want to play.

3. The coaches and I agree with the players.

4. It can be dangerous for the fielders to run on wet grass.

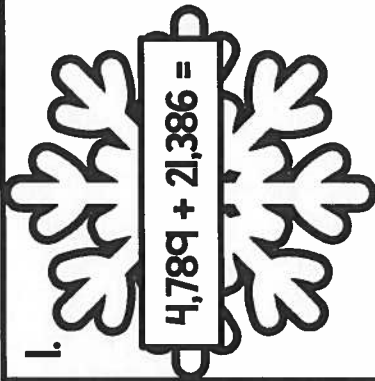

5. The best plan for the teams is to wait for the field to dry.

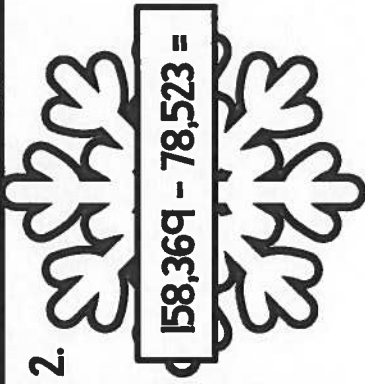

6. The umpire has an idea for you and me.

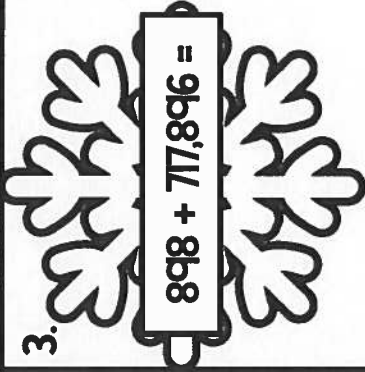

SNOWING SUMS AND DIFFERENCES

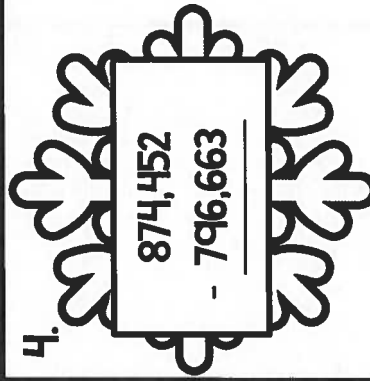

Name: _____ Date: _____

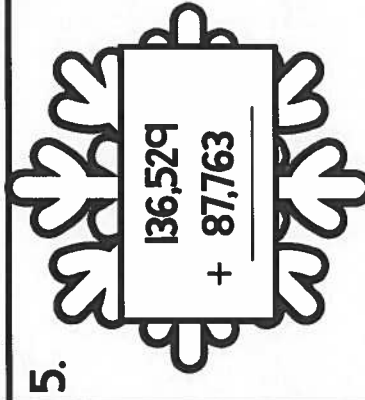

Directions: Solve the problem on each snowflake. Show your work underneath or beside the snowflake.

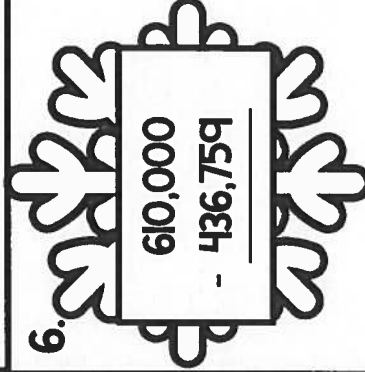

1.  $4,789 + 21,386 =$

2.  $158,369 - 78,523 =$

3.  $898 + 77,896 =$

4.  $874,452 - 796,663 =$

5.  $136,529 + 87,763 =$

6.  $610,000 - 436,759 =$

Mason