

Writing with Subordinating Conjunctions

A subordinating conjunction connects an independent clause with a dependent clause.

Example: Today is a special day because it is my birthday.

Punctuation hint: If the subordinating conjunction is at the beginning of the sentence, the dependent clause is followed by a comma. If subordinating conjunction and the dependent clause follow the independent clause, there is no comma after the independent clause.

Example: Because it is my birthday, today is a special day.

Below is a word bank of subordinating conjunctions. Turn the sets of phrases below into sentences by using a subordinating conjunction from the word bank. Use a subordinating conjunction only once.
